“Let Us Develop The Warrior In You”

Seven Home Rules for Children

The following rules need to be memorized by all Youth class members.

1. Children shall greet their parents when they enter the house (“Hi Mom, Hi Dad!”) and tell their parents “Good-bye” when they leave.
2. Children will always be respectful of the Parents, Teachers, and Elders.
3. Children will be kind to their brothers and sisters.
4. Children will help keep the household, especially their own rooms, neat and clean, and will make their own beds every morning.
5. Children will keep their hair, body, and teeth clean daily.
6. Children will not interrupt adult conversations.
7. Children will do all their assigned schoolwork every day.
